

BOARD POLICY 381

381 - Controversial Issues

Controversial issues shall not be avoided. Teachers and students shall be free to explore such issues and problems on the basis of principle, not prejudice, as a part of the curriculum. Study and discussion of such issues shall be objective and impartial and within the appropriate context of a District course of study.

Legal Ref.: Sections 118.01, 118.019, and 121.02(1)(h), Wisconsin Statutes

Approved: October 16, 1997

Reviewed: October 15, 2003